

EVERYBODY SMILES IN THE SAME LANGUAGE

Words and Music by Todd Lowry

Everybody smiles in the same language.
A smile lets your light come shining through.
That curve at the corner of your mouth sets everybody straight.
Let your smile illuminate the view.

Everybody smiles in the same language.
Everybody wins with a contagious grin.
A smile doesn't cost you anything
But there's so much good that it brings.

Oh, Oh, Oh... Oh, Oh, Oh...

Turn your smile on, you can't go wrong.
You'll find that love is all around.
Follow your bliss, no one is against you.
Be bold be beautiful, just be you.
Be bold be beautiful, just be you.

Oh, Oh, Oh... Oh, Oh, Oh...

Everybody smiles in the same language.
A smile lets your light come shining through.
That curve at the corner of your mouth sets everybody straight.

Be bold, be beautiful, Just be you.

Be bold, be beautiful, Just be you.

Be bold, be beautiful, Just be you.

Everybody smiles in the same language.

Everybody smiles in the same language.
